

New South Wales Street Rod Committee

PO Box 9710 Wyee NSW 2259

Article Twelve (12): STREET ROD CONDITIONAL REGISTRATION SCHEME

1. Club Members with cars on the STREET ROD CONDITIONAL REGISTRATION SCHEME must abide by the rules and directions of the NSW Street Rod Committee Inc (SRC).
2. At all times, the NSW Street Rod Committee Inc has jurisdiction over the permit vehicles in the club.
3. The club shall have an elected Technical Advisory Committee (TAC) representative.

The TAC representative duties are to include the following :-

- a) Responsible for the technical side of the clubs duties.
 - b) Give advice in technical areas for both full and conditional registration.
 - c) Have access to the Street Rod Construction Guidelines.
 - d) Have access to the "Do it yourself checklist".
 - e) Carry out "Do it yourself checklist" prior to SRC Inspection of vehicles under construction.
 - f) Be the Principal contact for your club with NSW Street Rod Committee Inc (SRC).
 - g) Keep the NSW Street Rod Committee Inc (SRC) informed of any changes within your club in relation to STREET ROD CONDITIONAL REGISTRATION. i.e. members leaving, cars being sold.
 - h) Have responsibility for guidance of club members in matters relating to safety and conformance to the rules of the NSW Street Rod Committee Inc (SRC).
 - i) Attend the annual NSW Street Rod Committee Inc (SRC) AGM or appoint a club representative to attend in their place.
 - j) Provides the NSW Street Rod Committee Inc (SRC) with a yearly report (SRC-Form-012) on vehicles in the club using STREET ROD CONDITIONAL REGISTRATION. i.e. operators name, contact details, conditional rego number.
4. The Club is to remain recognised as a charter member of the Australian Street Rod Federation (ASRF) at all times or within a recognised/approved club.
 - a) If Charter Membership of the ASRF were to lapse, conditional registration of the clubs vehicles is to be considered cancelled and the NSW Street Rod Committee Inc notified by the TAC Representative or Club Secretary.
 - b) Vehicle owner on Street Rod Conditional Registration must also remain a member of the Australian Street Rod Federation.

Club Name: _____

President Name: _____ sign _____ Date _____

TAC representative Name: _____ Sign _____ Date _____